

PLANS FOR LAUNCHING WAR WORKERS' DRIVE

PROPOSE TO RAISE QUOTA IN FIFTEEN MINUTES.

First Big Gun to Be Fired From Pulpit of Pilgrim Church Monday Night.

Big War Workers drive to begin Thursday, Nov. 14, at 11:50 and close fifteen minutes later. During this time every Chattanooga will be expected to drop his subscription to the fund, in the mail box.

Noted Ambassador Morgenthau to speak in Chattanooga Tuesday, Nov. 12, in interest of war workers' campaign.

Preparations for the big war workers drive that will take place Nov. 11-18 in Chattanooga, are well under way at the former liberty loan headquarters on Broad street. In fact, the greatest preparations that have ever been arranged leading up to a campaign of this kind in Hamilton county are included in the program to raise the 150,000 allotted to this county within fifteen minutes, the time set aside by Chairman Paul J. Kruesel.

The big gun will be sounded for the first time Monday night beginning promptly at 8 o'clock at the Pilgrim Congregational church, when A. W. Harris, a well-known New York banker, of the firm of Forbes-Harris and company, who has recently returned from the battle front, will speak to a Chattanooga audience. Mr. Harris is expected on the afternoon train from Atlanta, Ga. While a number of prominent speakers have been scheduled to speak in Chattanooga preceding the great war drive, Mr. Harris will probably deliver one of the most interesting, and picture some of the most vivid mental war pictures that have ever been heard here before.

While overseas he was first assistant to Fred Carter, chief of the speakers on overseas work, and is not only exceedingly well informed concerning the work that the war workers are doing at the front, but is also considered a brilliant speaker. Since the opening of the war Mr. Harris has voted his entire time to traveling back and forth across the ocean doing war relief work. He has drawn capacity houses in Boston, Philadelphia and New York.

In addition to the main address of the evening delivered by Mr. Harris, G. Fred Thomas, chairman of the speakers committee, has arranged for Col. Bispham, commander of Camp Greenleaf to address the audience, and tell those present something of the work of the war workers organization at Chickamauga Park. There is probably no person at the camp who is more familiar with the work now being carried on at the camp by these various organizations and he will therefore no doubt give a very interesting and instructive talk of the work there.

An added feature of the 100-piece military band from Greenleaf that will be stationed on the stage behind the speakers and will give frequent musical numbers. There will be absolutely no subscription taken to the campaign tonight, and the meeting is free, the entire public being invited to attend the gathering.

Proceeding the meeting Col. Bispham will entertain with a dinner at the Hotel Patten in honor of the seven representatives of the different organizations. This will include about thirty in the party.

A telegram has also been received by Charles T. Malcomson, secretary of the organization, reading that the former ambassador to Turkey, Henry Morgenthau, will be in Chattanooga on next Tuesday night and address an audience. Ambassador Morgenthau was a most successful representative and is not only known for the service which he rendered during the time which he served, but has also written a number of interesting books.

Chairman Paul J. Kruesel, of the campaign for Hamilton county, made a talk before the Pastors' association Monday morning and secured their pledge to devote their Sunday morning services on Sunday, Nov. 10, to the big war drive. They also pledged their full support during the entire campaign.

It has been decided that the big campaign will take place Thursday, 11:40 and finishing fifteen minutes later. During this time all factory wheels will be stopped, as well as the street cars, and the factory whistles, church bells and sirens will sound the alarm for the war workers' campaign. Every man, woman and child will be expected to stop whatever they may be doing at this particular time and write out their subscription to the fund. The allotment assigned to each individual has been worked out on the basis of a half year's interest on the amount of the fourth liberty loan which the person may have, it will be necessary for those who are financially able and who are particularly interested in the campaign having boys at the front to double their quota and in some incidents to even triple it. The plan will work out like this, as explained by those in charge—if one holds a $50 bond his or her quota will therefore be a minimum quota which would be $1.

Effective programs to be carried out in both the city and county schools are being worked out by the committee in charge, and on the day of the big whirlwind campaign the school children will be expected to lay aside their books and dismiss their minds from their studies long enough to be permitted to make their subscription to the campaign.

Mr. Kruesel says that he cannot emphasize too strongly the necessity of the great need of funds to carry on the work that is now being done by the seven organizations, even if peace were declared tomorrow. He declares that Y. M. C. A. workers, as well as representatives from other organizations, will necessarily have to be kept busy for at least a year or two during the rehabilitation period, and that in view of the fact the soldiers will be kept over there for a year or two it means that the workers will also have to keep busy.

Maj. W. E. Brock was out Monday morning for the first time after several weeks' illness of influenza. Maj. Brock was on the job at the war workers' headquarters on Broad street and was preparing to start to work on the coming campaign.

HELD ON CHARGES

Multitude of Crimes Laid at Door of Two Little Negro Boys.

James Dillard and Robert Woodruff, two 14-year-old colored boys, are being held at the police station upon a multitude of charges of larceny. The two crooks, it developed, are professional bicycle thieves, being interrupted in the illegal practice by Detectives Seward and Perkins. Dillard seems to be the ringleader, and fell into the hands of the detectives Saturday afternoon, while the arrest of his pal, Woodruff, took place Sunday morning. The boys have been giving a great deal of trouble within the last few weeks, and have become quite bold. Dillard has been before Judge Fleming half a dozen times within the last two months, and only a few days ago was ordered given a good whipping by the court. The boys will probably be sent to the reformatory near Nashville.

Monday morning eleven bicycles stolen by the boys had been recovered and were at the station awaiting identification. The young miscreants were clever enough to disguise the stolen wheels by changing saddles, handlebars, or even tires. In some cases the numbers on the frames were changed and the wheels painted over. The detectives report the stolen bicycles were scattered all over town. Some were recovered in Highland Park and others in North Chattanooga. Detective Seward took a sudden notion to go fishing Sunday morning, and in a short time returned with a very good bicycle covered with river mud. The thieves had gone so far as to throw one of the stolen wheels into the Tennessee river for safekeeping.

SUSPECTS COLORED YOUTH

Detective Paradiso Catches Negro and Holds Him for Investigation.

Sydney Nash, a colored boy 17 years of age, has been arrested by Detective Paradiso and will be tried upon at least one charge of larceny Tuesday morning in police court. Nash to all appearances is simply an easy-going back driver, but he is strongly suspected by the detective of being the bold robber who was so active among the residences of Highland Park during June and July. The police were for a time baffled by the number of robberies made in the section, nearly every night for a time a house being reported broken into. According to Detective Paradiso, Nash has been identified by J. W. Blair as the negro who entered his home in Highland Park, stealing two pistols, two watches, several rings and $35 in money. Mr. Paradiso said he doubted if he could bring positive proof that Nash is the negro wanted for the wholesale robberies. He is, however, working on the case.

DRAWN TOWARD END

MORE INTEREST SHOWN IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

Hamilton County Voters Chiefly Concerned in Two Senatorial Races.

THE CANDIDATES.

For Governor, Albert B. Lindsey, democrat. H. B. Lindsey, republican.

For U. S. Senator, John K. Shields, democrat. H. Clay Evans, republican.

For Railroad Commissioner, Harvey H. Hannah, democrat. George C. Taylor, republican.

For Congressman, John A. Moon, democrat. For State Senator, W. B. Cleage, democrat. F. T. Carter, republican.

For Lower House of Legislature, Democrats—L. Emerson, J. O. Martin, L. D. Miller. Republicans—C. E. Lynn, A. Horn, E. Stuart Gill.

Today brings the end of what is perhaps the most remarkable political campaign in the history of the country and of the section—a campaign which at first seemed regarded as almost entirely without interest to the mass of the people. However, it was predicted by old-timers this morning that the vote locally would be much heavier than at first expected and that some of the races would probably be close.

Political dopesters and forecasters have had less this campaign than ever before upon which to base prophecies. The campaign has been marked on the surface by a most unusual calm and lack of interest, though it is true that there have been undercurrents of more than ordinary violence.

Voters locally have not even had any hard-fought issues over which to divide their ballots tomorrow. Perhaps the greatest amount of interest locally is in the race for the state senatorship between Senator McGowan and W. B. Cleage. One of the chief issues in that race is the redistricting of the county.

Mr. Cleage said this morning that the prospect looked good to him and repeated the platform declaration upon which he stands in favor of fourteen districts for the county instead of the three which are now in effect. Mr. Cleage had stated that he intended making a map of the county showing the fourteen proposed districts, but the election will be held without such a map having been displayed.

Mr. Cleage's opponent, Finney Carter, is expected to add to the normal republican strength a considerable democratic and labor vote.

Party Lines Are Not Drawn in the Legislative Races.

The race between H. Clay Evans and Senator Shields is also one of great interest here, due to the fact that Mr. Evans lives here and also to Mr. Evans' declaration in favor of suffrage, which is expected to inject other than straight party considerations into the voting.

Mr. Evans has conducted a most energetic campaign by letter and through other agencies, though he has done no speech making, nor campaigned at all in the old accepted sense of the word. However, the kind that he has done is admitted to have been effective, as witnessed by appeals made by Senator McGowan, Judge Roberts and others for the democrats to rally to the support of Senator Shields.

Candidates this morning were stirring about in preparation for the day ahead. Mr. Cleage was very much in evidence around the courthouse; Finney Carter was pretty busy upon the streets, and despite the public preoccupation in word events, it was evident that an election was impending.

Mr. Evans seemed least concerned of anybody. With Dick Burnett, Dave Barker and others of the faithful he was comfortably surrounded by cigar smoke in his office and seemed to be hugely enjoying a number of anecdotes and jokes which were being told.

About Croup.

If your children are subject to croup, or if you have reason to fear their being attacked by that disease, you should procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and study the directions for use, so that in case of an attack you will know exactly what course to pursue. This is a favorite and very successful remedy for croup, and it is important that you observe the directions carefully.—(Adv.)

HAMILTON COUNTY HAS HEAVY QUOTA

MUST FURNISH 759 MEN UNDER NEXT CALL.

Will Leave in Three Contingents, Beginning on Nov. 19.

According to an official order, Tennessee will send 10,518 of her sons into camp during the month of November, including both white and black registrants. Of the 10,518, 7,769 are in receipt of the heaviest calls yet received by them. All the men are to be physically qualified for general military service and the calls will make a big hole in the class of registrants. Of the immense quota of Tennesseans who are to go under arms during the month, Hamilton county will furnish 759; 155 colored registrants are included in the call while the remainder is to be made up of white men, all of the recruits being qualified for general military service. The negro selectmen will entrain for Camp Chilton, Chilton, Ohio. All three quotas of white selectmen will report at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss.

Under the caption of general order No. 1, 1915, G. 1, 1915, colored registrants are to be physically qualified for general military service, have been ordered to entrain for Camp Sherman during the three-day period beginning on Nov. 19. The quotas of the local boards in this call are as follows:

County board No. 1.....	24
County board No. 2.....	24
City board No. 1.....	27
City board No. 2.....	70
Total.....	155

Under the head of general order A 1499-G, 1,210 Tennesseans qualified for general service have been ordered to entrain for Camp Shelby during a five-day period beginning Nov. 11. Of the total number the local boards have been assigned the following quotas:

County board No. 1.....	15
County board No. 2.....	15
City board No. 1.....	20
City board No. 2.....	12
Total.....	62

A third call which is by far the largest yet received, orders 7,333 white registrants from the state to be inducted into the service and entrain for Camp Shelby during a five-day period beginning Nov. 11. The quotas of the local boards are unusually heavy and they caused an official of county board No. 2 to remark that the calls will just about clean out everything he has at present. The quotas of the

The Lesson of Calamity

You often hear that every cloud has its silver lining, though the statement is open to serious doubt.

But no one disputes that every calamity has its lesson. It is by learning those lessons that humanity has made progress.

There is one outstanding lesson to be drawn from the recent epidemic or influenza which swept the country. It is not one of sanitation, of preventive measures, or of treatment, but one of alleviation.

When the epidemic was sweeping the country, taking life after life, nothing much seemed certain.

Serum prevention was regarded with doubt.

Dispute raged about the method of treatment.

All sorts of measures regarded as effective proved useless.

The malady had a habit of striking those of the most rugged appearance.

Only one thing remained constant and unchanged, operating as expected—and that was Life Insurance.

Had it not been for that ever-present influence think how much worse matters would have been.

Thousands of families would have been reduced to poverty through the sudden passing of bread-winners. All over the country communities would have been forced to make provision to care for the dependent women and children.

As it is the epidemic passed without creating a ripple on the economic surface. Life insurance steadied the boat.

You yourself can name four or five families saved by insurance.

We cannot dodge death, we have not yet conquered pestilence, but we can make sure that the shadow of poverty will be banished.

To Avoid and Relieve Influenza

BY DR. FRANKLIN DUANE.

Many people have been frightened by what they have read or heard of influenza. The more you fear the disease the surer you are to get it. Go right about your business and forget it. As the disease is spread principally by contact through sneezing, coughing or spitting, many health authorities have advised that everyone wear a gauze, which is daily washed and saturated with a one to five hundred solution of zinc sulphate in water, and then dried before wearing over the nose and mouth. You should avoid crowds, common drinking cups and public towels. Keep your strength up by taking lots of exercise in the open air and plenty of nourishing food.

If you have any of such symptoms as chills, nasal obstructions, flushed face, headache, feverishness, restlessness, weakness, or irritating cough, give up work at once and go to bed. This will save your strength to help overcome the disease. Put your feet in hot water for fifteen minutes. Thoroughly loosen the bowels with some such mild and non-irritating physic as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Drink principally of hot lemonade and then cover up with plenty of clothes in bed so as to get a good sweat. When sweating is free and the fever reduced take a dose of two Anurio Tablets every four hours, followed by drinking at least a glass of tea or hot water. Anurio Tablets help quickly to relieve the soreness of the muscles and bones from which most patients complain and help the kidneys flush out the poisons.

To relieve nasal obstructions and excessive discharge from the nose, probably nothing is better than such a mild, soothing, antiseptic wash as Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It will give great relief. Employed as a gargle, in same strength as made up for use in the nose, and as hot as can be borne, it quickly arrests soreness and dryness in the throat.

Influenza weakens the patient's resistance to disease, so that there is danger of bronchitis and pneumonia developing. To combat this tendency and fortify the patient's strength, insist that he keep in bed at least two days. Probably nothing will at this stage hasten the recovery and strengthen the patient more than an iron-tonic tablet called "Ironite" or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been used by thousands in the past two generations.—(Adv.)
